

Joe Cassin has been employed by the East Texas Police Academy since 2014. Prior to his employment with ETPA, Cassin served as a Deputy with the Gregg County Sheriff's Office in Longview, Texas, where he served as: a jail deputy; a patrol deputy; a Field Training Officer; and was an operator on the joint regional Longview Police Department SWAT team. Cassin was also previously employed as a patrol officer with the Tyler Police Department in Tyler, Texas; as well as the San Mateo Police Department in San Mateo, California.

Joe holds a Bachelor of Arts in History from the Virginia Military Institute, where he was also a New Cadet Military Training cadre instructor; and he holds a Master of Arts in Criminal Justice from Boston University where he is a charter member of the National Criminal Justice Honors Society.

Joe holds numerous certificates including: TCOLE Master Peace Officer; TCOLE Instructor; TCOLE Firearms Instructor; Mental Health Peace Officer; RADAR/Laser Instructor; Edged Weapons Defense Instructor; SPEAR Instructor; and Drug Abuse Recognition.